Part II - Findings of Fact and Law as to Presumptions under § 3142(e)

Part III - Analysis and Statement of the Reasons for Detention

After considering the factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) and the information presented at the detention hearing, the Court concludes that the defendant must be detained pending trial because the Government has proven:

- ⊠ By a preponderance of evidence that no condition or combination of conditions of release will reasonably assure the defendant's appearance as required.

In addition to any findings made on the record at the hearing, the reasons for detention include the following:

- ⊠ Weight of evidence against the defendant is strong
- □ Prior criminal history
- ☐ Participation in criminal activity while on probation, parole, or supervision
- ⊠ History of violence or use of weapons
- ⊠ History of alcohol or substance abuse
- □ Lack of stable employment
- □ Lack of stable residence
- ☑ Prior failure to appear in court as ordered
- ☑ Prior violations of probation, parole, or supervised release
- ☑ The nature and circumstances of the offense charged.
